The attached rubric is what I will be using to determine your grade for this assignment. As a way to review and revise your paragraph(s) before writing the final draft, use this rubric to give yourself a grade. Read the rubric carefully, then read your paragraph(s). For each category on the rubric, give yourself a grade that you think most accurately reflects the work you have done so far. Then write an explanation of why you think this grade is appropriate and what you need to change in your writing to bring your paragraph(s) to the next level.

1. Grammatical Structure & Sequence _____/10 points

2. Fluency and Accuracy of Communication _____/15 points

3. Use of Tenses and Verb Conjugations _____/ 15 points

After determining your current "final" grade, take a moment to reflect on some areas that you might need to improve upon. What aspects of your writing, (or French skills) do you think you need to work on? Come up with a strategy, or suggest some ways, that you could improve upon these weaknesses. These could be study habits, usage of your time in class, writing strategies, it's up to you.
