

TASKS, RUBRICS & CRITERIA

STANDARD 1: EXCHANGE ESSENTIAL INFORMATION...

TASK #1

You have just moved to Mexico and it is your first day in your new school. You're nervous, but you want to impress your teacher by politely introducing yourself using common greetings and leave taking expressions. Make sure to include the following in your introduction. Your teacher will begin speaking first.

- ★ Greet your teacher by saying good morning and tell her your name by looking her directly in the eye. Then, ask what her name is.
- ★ Say that you are pleased to meet her.
- ★ Shake her hand.
- ★ Ask how she is doing by using the formal address of "you" in Spanish.
- ★ Say good-bye and that you will see her tomorrow.

RUBRIC

Criteria	EXCELLENT (2) (X2)	GOOD (1) (X2)	POOR (0)
Content	All prompts have been asked and/or answered accurately. Student used "USTED" (the formal use of "you" in Spanish).	Student accurately answers most questions and responds appropriately.	Student does not ask questions or respond to questions.
Intonation, pronunciation, fluency	Student uses appropriate intonation, pronunciation, and speaks without long pauses.		Student uses inappropriate intonation or English-type pronunciation and pauses for long periods of time.
Culturally appropriate gestures used	Student uses gestures to appropriately greet teacher. Student shakes teacher's hand firmly and makes eye-contact the entire time while speaking.		Student does not shake the teacher's hand and/or does not make eye-contact while speaking with the teacher.
TOTAL: 12 pts.			