

STANDARD I: EXCHANGE ESSENTIAL INFORMATION...

TASK #2

You are a new student in your classroom in Mexico and you want to introduce yourself to one of your new classmates. In pairs in front of the classroom, you will engage in a dialogue using common greetings and leave taking expressions. Make sure to include the following in dialogue with your randomly selected classmate. The older person in the pair will begin the dialogue.

- ★ Greet him/her by saying good morning or afternoon and tell them your name. Then, ask what your classmate's name is.
- ★ Say that you are pleased to meet him/her.
- ★ Shake one another's hand firmly.
- ★ Ask how he/she is doing by using the informal address of "you" in Spanish.
- ★ Say good-bye and that you will see him/her tomorrow.

RUBRIC

Criteria	EXCELLENT (2) (X2)	GOOD (1)	POOR (0)
Content	All prompts have been asked and/or answered accurately in a logical manner. Student uses "Tú" (the informal use of "you" in Spanish).	Student accurately answers most questions and responds appropriately. OR student may use the inappropriate use of "you" in Spanish.	Student does not ask questions or respond to questions.
Intonation, pronunciation, fluency	Student uses appropriate intonation, pronunciation, and speaks without long pauses.		Student uses inappropriate intonation or English-type pronunciation and pauses for long periods of time.
Culturally appropriate gestures used	Student uses gestures to appropriately greet classmate. Student shakes their peer's hand and makes eye-contact the entire time while speaking.		Student does not shake the teacher's hand and/or does not make eye-contact while speaking with the teacher.
TOTAL: 12 pts.			