

Standards

Content Standards:

1. Students will be able to analyze written material.
2. Students will be able to compose organized and coherent writing.
3. Students will be able to write for specific audiences and purposes.
4. Students will be able to model and analyze their public speaking skills.
5. Students will be able to model and analyze their interpersonal communication skills.
6. Students will be able to apply information and ideas in a variety of situations.
7. Students will be able to identify and describe the elements of fiction.
8. Students will be able to explain character development.
9. Students will be able to compare and contrast characters, ideas, and attitudes.
10. Students will be able to support their opinions, beliefs, and values.

Process Standards:

1. Students will be able to think critically.
2. Students will be able to listen critically.

Value Standards:

1. Students will be able to empathize with other students and characters.
2. Students will be able to demonstrate how their beliefs and values influence communication.