Assignment: You will write three different journal entries for three different characters while we read the novel. You will empathize with these characters and writing as if you were this character. Discuss your actions, beliefs, values, opinions, and decisions as this character. Explain why you do what you do as this character; why you think what you think as this character. Discuss your opinion of other characters in the novel and your relationship with them. You will turn in a journal entry after chapters 4, 8, and 12. Choose one journal entry to share with the rest of class on one of the dates you turn it in.

Rubric for character journals

	Character #1	Character #2	Character #3
Detailed explanation of your character's actions and reactions
Description of your character's thoughts, feelings, beliefs, and values
Clear understanding of who this character is physically and emotionally
Correct grammar, spelling, and sentence structure

5=excellent 4=good 3=fair 2=needs work 1=poor

Each criterion is worth five points each. You will have an opportunity to earn up to 60 points on these journals. Five points will be given if you complete each of the criteria successfully. You will not earn any points if you do not meet the criteria.
