

To: Atticus From: Scout

Standards:

1. Analyze a particular point of view based on a cultural experience reflected in a work of literature.

Task:

Write a letter from Scout to Atticus in which she explains how she feels about life. In particular, Scout will compare and contrast how she viewed the world before Atticus defended Tom and after the novel is over. Remember all of our discussion on how Scout has changed over the course of the novel—especially her view of the world. Your letter should have a greeting, a body in which you address her views, and a conclusion.

Criteria:

- Shows similarities of Scout's views before and after
- Shows differences between Scout's views before and after
- Letter contains specific evidence from text
- Letter is written in Scout's voice
- Letter follows correct format

Rubric:

Criteria	Weight	Needs Work- 1	Strong- 3
Shows similarities of Scout's views before and after		Similarities are not clearly represented or explained	Similarities are clearly represented and explained
Shows differences between Scout's views before and after		Differences are not clearly represented or explained	Differences are clearly represented and explained
Letter contains specific evidence from the text	X3	Relevant and specific evidence is not used from text	Relevant and specific evidence is used from text
Letter is written in Scout's voice		Letter does not read as if Scout is writing	Letter reads as if Scout is writing
Letter follows correct format		Letter does not have the greeting, body, and conclusion	Letter has a greeting, a body, and a conclusion
Total ____ / 21			