

Planning Your Dream Vacation

Introduction

Congratulations! You have just won a one-week vacation of your choice. You may go anywhere in the world, any time you like. The prize includes a $6000 gift package for travel and related expenses. Any funds that are not depleted must be returned.

Materials

For this project you will need travel and hotel accommodation information gathered from travel agency brochures, travel guides, travel sections of the newspaper, and so on.

Activity

Within your $6000 budget, plan the best vacation possible. Where would you like to go? How would you like to get to these places? Would you travel alone or with a friend? The choice is yours.

Organization of Information

You must organize your information on a poster. The poster should contain the following.

1. The brochure or article which lured you into choosing your vacation spot.
2. A typed explanation of how you decided your destination. (One page max)
3. Written or typed responses to the included questionnaire.
4. Name and class period on the back.

Optional: In addition to the sources given in "materials," you may call or visit travel agencies or airlines, wildlife societies or historical societies for special trips. These options may be included in the "typed explanation" from #2 above.

Questionnaire

1. What is your destination?
2. How will you get there and how will you travel once at your destination?

3. What is your departure date, and why are you leaving at this time?

4. What is your return date?

5. Include your expenses for the following:

a. Transportation

b. Hotel accommodations

c. Meals

d. Sightseeing

e. Souvenirs

f. Recreation

g. Any other items or activities not covered above.
