

Final Reflection

Task: This unit is entitled Where do we go from here? for more than one reason. It refers not only to our country, but also to you. What do you know now that you didn't at the beginning of this unit? What can you do now that you could not do at the beginning of this unit? In addition, what can you do better than you did at the beginning of the unit? This reflection asks you to look at the pieces you've done and decide how they have helped you to grow.

Which did you feel more confident completing Why democracy? or Federalist or Antifederalist?

What vocabulary words can you use without being prompted?

What concept can you explain to younger students without using your text?

What assignment could you do faster, more accurately, and with less effort than you could at the beginning of this unit?
