

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

If you were going to interview someone about his or her life, you would want to ask specific questions in order to get interesting answers. Obviously you would not ask the same questions to every person. Instead, you would ask questions that would be appropriate for the person you are speaking with. Write three “interview questions” for each of the following people:

A six-year-old boy who lives with his grandmother

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A professional soccer player who's team is in first place

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A cook at a Chinese restaurant

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A woman who drives a taxi in Chicago

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A model for a popular brand of make-up

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A retired General from the Army

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A person who witnessed a traffic accident

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

The sister of a popular movie star

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A professional comedian

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

The owner of a candy store

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A homeless man who used to live in another country

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A student who lost an election for class president

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

A security guard at a large jewelry store

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

The wife of a man who hunts tigers as a hobby

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.