

TOPCEA Chart: Internet Source

Directions: Complete the following chart by following the directions for each section. Be very detailed. Each section requires more than 1 complete sentence and you should use quotes from the text to support your answer. Your goal is to examine the author's message and support.

Title of Article: _____

Who is the writer and what is the writer's occupation or credentials (if given)?

YOU MAY FILL OUT THESE SECTIONS IN ANY ORDER

Tone: After reading the evidence and the writer's use of diction, what is the tone of the article? Explain your decision	Tone: ___ Positive ___ Neutral ___ Negative
Purpose: What is the writer trying to do with the information presented in the article? Explain your decision.	Purpose: ___ Persuade ___ Inform ___ Entertain
Claim: Based on the purpose you identified above, write a statement that summarizes the specific focus of the article.

Continue onto the back →

Evidence Analysis

Evidence What specific evidence does the writer use to support the claim? (May write a detailed paraphrases or direct quotations)	Identify the Appeal Logos, pathos, ethos	Interpretation How is this piece of evidence being used to support the claim? Draw a link between what is said and why it is supportive